isdiction,
William M. Powell, in opposing the writ, said that Cunningham's present retention was perfectly regular.
Both lawyers went into legal tomes by the score, Judge Dykman finally I have got to decide something, 1

"I have got to decide something. I cedde that Cunningham has been regularly committed. I have no right to go ack of that on habeas corpus. I therefore remand Cunningham back to the netitution called for in the writ."

Judge Nelson then wanted to take up the fact that Cunningham had become ane since he arrived at the Amityville saylum.

"You construed your own case to begin with," said Judge Dykman. "If you want to argue that point, you will need to begin a new action, and set that fact forth as the base."

Judge Nelson said he would return in the course of the day and argue the other side of the writ.

At 10.39 Judge Nelson brought Cunningham to the bar, and he swore to a new writ of habeas corpus, returnable forthwith.

Trouble has broken out afresh in the Throep avenue People's Evangelical Church, in Brooklyn, John Mosenhauer, one of the deacons, and Treasurer of the Fund for the Relief of the Foor, has tesigned, and withdrawn from the organization.

Mosenhauer was not the contraction of the Poor, when the contraction of the contraction of the contraction of the contraction.

"Mosenhauer became associated with Trustee Homeyer, who was fired out of church because of his conduct," said young Bernhardt.

"The Board of Trustees thought that it would be better if the money was taken out of his possession, because he had disobeyed a majority of the Board.

"If Mosenhauer was kept out of the cemetery it was his own fault. My father instructed the policeman to let the undertaker and sister of the deceased enter, but to keep others outside. My father, has several enemies who would have trampled over the grave of my dead eister, and we vanted to prevent that if we could. If the policeman kept Mosenhauer out it was through mistake and not because he was directed to do 80."
